Carver-Price School News

Hello Readers! The Panthers won their first game as we reported to you. The second game with Campbell County High School, there, was lost by our Panthers, 46-43. High scorer for Carver was George Jennings with 19 points, and for Campbell P. Lewis with 14 points. Last Friday, December 9, the team played Northside High School at Gretna, and lost by a score of 49 to 33. Wednesday, December 14, at 1:00 P. M., Northside plays here. With our pep and encouragement, we are expecting our team to win. We definitely will be rooting! We are very proud of our new, swift-moving team.

On Sunday, December 18, at 4:00 P. M., a Christmas cantata entitled "Born This Day," will be presented by the Music Department under the direction of Miss Celestine Sergeon. All patrons and friends are invited to attend. Much time and effort has been spent in preparing this program for your enjoyment and to convey the spirit of Christmas.

The contest for the "Miss Carver-Price" title opens Monday, December 19. The winner will attend all games free for a year, will attend the tournament game, and will receive a gift from the school. Her regal crowning will be February 22, at half time during the game. Students from grades 6-12 are eligible.

The seniors have received their class rings. They are very pretty. Senior photographs were taken last Monday. Mr. A. G. Brodnax, Richmond photographer, took them as usual—in caps and gowns. Doesn't seem like commencement at all now, but early plans are necessary.

Until next week, our thought: "Life, believe, is not a dream, So dark as sages day; Oft a little morning rain Foretells a pleasant day!"

Many parties are being planned throughout the school. Each homeroom will be given time to have their Christmas party. In this yuletide season our students are not only concentrating on themselves They are very conscious of other's needs, and are planning many projects to help others. Among these is the Senior Class. Each year while the other classes are having their parties, the Senior Class prepares a Christmas Basket for someone. They find much more enjoyment and content during the Christmas holidays by knowing they have helped others.

Have you been to any of our basketball games this season? They're just great! The games on last Friday night were very exciting. Both teams won over their opponent, Amherst. The teams met Spring Garden Wednesday night with two wonderful games. They play their next game here in the gym tomorrow night. Be sure to be there because your presense counts a great deal! The Alumni game is scheduled for January 3.

This is all for this week. I'll see you next week to conclude the A. H. S. Newscast for 1955!
